

West Africa and the Diaspora: Continuities and Transformations

Late May - Early June 2021, Senegal*

Fully-Funded Overseas Faculty Development Seminar for Community College and MSI Faculty

This two-week seminar, based in Dakar but with visits to Gorée Island, Toubacouta, and Saint-Louis, will feature lectures, site visits, discussions, and film screenings on the history, culture, economy, and political life of Senegal, with a focus on the cultural, intellectual, political, and economic connections between West Africa and the diasporas. Special emphasis will be placed on Senegal's spiritual diversity and growing transnational movements.

Learn more and apply: caorc.org/faculty-development-senegal

Application Deadline: Monday, February 1, 2021

*Exact seminar dates to be determined and subject to change based on pandemic developments